

artevista FILMS

JUSTICE
FOR MY SISTER

JOHN
JAY
COLLEGE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Justice for My Sister follows one Guatemalan woman during her three-year battle to hold her sister's killer accountable. She encounters many obstacles: a police record that is missing, a judge who is accused of killing his own wife, and witnesses who are too afraid to testify. In the end, Rebeca emerges as a leader in her community with a message for others that JUSTICE IS POSSIBLE.

JUSTICE FOR MY SISTER FILM SCREENING

Sponsored by U.S. Mission to the UN and Guatemalan Mission to the UN

March 11, 2015

6:30 pm – 7:45 pm

Dag Hammarskjöld Auditorium – UN Building – NYC

Film Screening

Panel Discussion: Moderator Lois A. Herman, WUNRN –
Women's UN Report Network

Kimberly Bautista – Director/Producer Justice for My Sister Film

Jodie Roue, JD, PhD – Associate Professor/Director John Jay College of Criminal Justice, CUNY
Research & Upcoming Book on Violence Against Women in Latin America & The Caribbean

To RSVP to this event, please email justiceformysister@gmail.com.