

UN Human Rights Council Session 23 – Panel

GENDER HARMONY: A PROMISING TOOL AGAINST GENDER VIOLENCE

3 June 2013 - 5:00 pm-6:30 pm
Palais des Nations - Room XXV
Geneva, Switzerland

Gender Harmony is a Promising Tool Against Gender Violence in promoting respect for human rights to achieve family well-being within gender equality and equity

Distinguished Speakers:

- Dr. Erna Surjadi MS.APBI PhD, Founder & President Gender Harmony Foundation - Preventing gender-based violence for 56% reduction; Gender Harmony Program, Declaration, Books
- Prof. Dr. Meutia Hatta Swasono, Presidential Advisory Council Republic of Indonesia on Education and Culture, Expert on developing cultural reorientation throughout character building for family welfare
- Dr. Nurmala Kartini Sjahrir, High Excellency Ambassador Republic of Indonesia to Argentina for supporting gender politics in harmony on the prevention of domestic violence
- Ms. Lois A. Herman, WUNRN Coordinator - Women's UN Report Network - Power Point on Women-Poverty-Rights
- Ms. Titi Sumbung SH, MPA, Executive Director of Indonesian Centre for Women in Politics, senior activist for judicial review on women empowerment within political practices in Indonesia

Moderator: Ms. Afton Beutler, President Mothers Legacy Project, Director Global Education Opportunity Programs (GEO)